 8. If you do not pay the full balance for your trip on time (8 weeks pre-departure) then the trip may be cancelled, and the deposit will not be refunded.

9. A trip may be cancelled by THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST. This will be notified to the client at the latest 8 weeks pre-departure except in exceptional circumstances. A full refund including any deposits received will be given in this instance, but no compensation will be due.

10. If THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST is forced to significantly alter or reschedule a trip due to factors reasonably foreseeable to ourselves, then you may either:

- Take a lower cost alternative, along with a refund of the difference.
- Take an equally, or higher priced alternative (and pay the supplement).
- Request a refund of monies paid.

We shall notify you as soon as the situation becomes apparent. You must reply promptly with the chosen option.

11. In the instance where THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST cancels a trip due to foreseeable factors Compensation may also be due.

12. If a trip is cancelled due to factors outside of THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST control (including covid quarantine & movement restrictions) no compensation or refund will be given— THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST will seek to reschedule the event at an alternative time.

13. Prices quoted can change up until 30 days before departure. These surcharges may be passed on to the customer. Downwards revision in prices could result in a refund to the customer. Areas that could trigger such price revisions are as follows:

- Transport or Accommodation cost variations
- Additional Transport or Accommodation duties, taxes or levies (airport taxes, park permits etc.)
- Exchange rate fluctuations Such increases will not be levied unless the impact is greater than a swing of 2% in the trip cost.

14. For full details on THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST itineraries, please consult the trip notes document on your chosen trip. All standard statutory required information is included therein.

15. In the case of a significant change being made to your itinerary by THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST, the client is able to take any of the options outlined in item 10.

16. Significant change means a change in timings either at the beginning or end of your trip by 24 hrs or more.

17. VISAs are the responsibility of the individual to arrange. THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST takes no part in making such arrangements.

18. Advice is given on matters such as equipment selection, health, Visa and passport arrangements—but it remains the responsibility of the individual to make and check such necessary arrangements.

19. Trekking, cycling and open canoeing are all inherently hazardous activities. Detailed Safety Information relating to the specific activities that you will be taking part in can be found on our website and is contained within your personalised trip notes. It is expected that you read this information carefully prior to departure for your trip, and follow the guidelines given. Whilst on your trip, you agree to undertake to follow the instructions given to you by your leader. Their decisions are at all times final. If you do not follow the leader's instruction, and your behaviour is dangerous, or irresponsible, then you may be requested to leave the trip, with no cost penalty to THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST

18. For many of our Challenge itineraries a minimum level of fitness is expected (as detailed in the personalised trip notes) THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST will provide a training plan to help you prepare. On cycling events, a basic level of bike handling competence is expected. In very rare cases, for your own wellbeing and safety - as well as that of the others in your group, your challenge leader may decide that lack of fitness or skill levels means it is unsafe or unwise for you continue with the challenge event. In this instance, we will make best endeavours to assist you with onwards transportation to the event finish, but ultimately this would be your responsibility and you will be responsible for any costs involved.

19. Inherent in an Adventure Challenge is the possibility that your clothing, bicycle or equipment may suffer damage. Equally you may experience injury (scratches, grazes, bruises, twisted ankles etc.) - these minor injuries and property damage are an unavoidable component of the type of trips that THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST operates. You should understand this before joining an THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST trip, and it is advised that you take insurance to cover your belongings.

20. Alterations in the itinerary are a more frequent occurrence than on a regular holiday, timetables slip, road conditions and weather can interfere with a schedule, as well other factors. Alterations to the trip can happen at any time. Your ground leader will attempt, in conjunction with the operating team at THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST, to perform the trip as faithfully as is reasonably possible. At all times, safe performance of the trip is considered as priority over completing the itinerary "at any cost."

21. For overseas trips you must be covered by adequate Travel Insurance before joining the trip. This is your responsibility to organise appropriate cover. Make sure that you are covered for activities included e.g. high-altitude trekking / road cycling. You must bring a copy of the insurance—and you must be ready to show it to the leader. THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST will retain a copy of your insurance during the trip. THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST reserves the right to refuse entry to the event if you are not appropriately covered, no refund will be due in this case. For all overseas mountainous cycle and trekking trips your cover should include emergency helicopter evacuation.

22. THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST responsibility for you on the trip begins, where an air journey is involved, at the destination airport. THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST takes no responsibility for getting you to the beginning of the trip. Similarly in the UK, THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST takes no responsibility for getting you to the start of a trip. (unless otherwise specified in trip notes)

23. Any complaints should firstly be raised directly to your tour leader. Explain the cause of your complaint and attempt to rectify it in situ. If this is not possible, and you feel it may detract from your event, then please contact THE ADVENTURE SUPPORT SPECIALIST head office directly, to see if anything can be done to remedy the situation. On return from trip, in the case of a complaint, please write to Adventure Cafe, including a full description of events. All complaints should be received at the very latest by Adventure Cafe by 28 days after the end of your holiday

24. By paying your trip deposit or full balance you agree to the Terms and Conditions set out as above
